

WHAT SHOULD I WRITE ABOUT?

YOUR KALEIDOSCOPE STORY

Your Kaleidoscope story can cover any aspects of your life. For a truly inspiring piece, It would be great if it includes some of the following:

1

Your relationship with the Jewish community, and how being part of the Jewish community (or not taking part) is a factor in your life.

2

Personal relationships (family, friends, romance)

3

Memories of Jewish experiences – cheder, camp, Jewish school, youth movement, student group, synagogue and community life, trips to Israel, etc..

4

Your past, your present and your future – You might want to talk about this moment when you are becoming an adult and the choices you are making for your future.

6

Why being Jewish is/isn't important to you?

8

What do you like/dislike about being a young Jewish adult?

9

Where do you see yourself in the future? What kind of Jewish life would you like to have as an adult?

10

Has the current crisis in Israel affected you in any way?
